HALF DAY BIRDING IN SIEM REAP

Half day of action packed birding

If you want to see some of the great birds that occur around Siem Reap but are pressed for time, why not head out with one of the SVC guides for a half-day trip to some of our local patches? We regularly see over 50 species at sites that are just a short (15-20 minute) tuk-tuk or car ride from the center of Siem Reap.

Day 1: Siem Reap (Morning Start- 05:30, Afternoon Start- 14:30)

"The half day private birding tour around Phnom Kron was excellent. Well worth the early start -- 5:30am pickup! Our guide Sophear was knowledgeable and very friendly. We saw more than 45 species, including a pied kingfisher, some adavatats, coucals, jacanas and many more."

"I had a great half-day bird-watching tour around Siem Reap this afternoon, with my guide Hat. We managed to find 45 species with perhaps the highlight being a number of Oriental Pratincole. Hat was extremely knowledgeable, spoke perfect English and ensured I had a memorable trip."

Morning Start

05:30 - Pick Up

Pick up from Hotel.

06.00 - Phnom Kroam

This site is just a quick 30 minute ride from Siem Reap, reachable by tuk-tuk, bicycle or auto. We bird the variety of habitats near the solitary peak that is crowned by a pre-Angkorian temple. Phnom

Kroam sits on the edge of Tonle Sap lake and overlooks rice paddies, lotus ponds, open water and floodplain scrub habitat.

A typical trip brings 50 to 60 species over a 3 hour period. Similar areas nearby are sometimes used if conditions warrant. These include the paddies and scrub beyond Chereav and the Wat Chedai area.

09:00 to 11:00 - Return to your hotel

We are flexible but 11:00 is the latest we can stay out birding.
